COMMUNIQUÉ DE PRESSE

La Galerie Allen a le plaisir de participer à la première édition de MAD à la maison rouge, les 22, 23 et 24 mai 2015.

Un projet central imaginé et présenté en commun avec Florence Loewy

La Galerie Allen présente, en collaboration avec Florence Loewy, le travail du duo d'artistes suisses Linus Bill + Adrien Horni (nés en 1983). Le processus créatif des deux artistes impliquant que leurs « peintures » ou leurs « copies » débutent par la fabrication d'un livre, il nous est en effet apparu que cette première présentation de leur pratique en France constituait une occasion idéale de collaborer avec Loewy – une des rares spécialistes dans le domaine du livre et des éditions d'artistes.

La Galerie Allen et Florence Loewy ont ainsi le plaisir de présenter l'intégralité des publications de Bill + Horni à ce jour. Cette présentation inclus leur nouvelle édition intitulée Gemälde 2013-2017, un livre d'artistes comprenant 367 pages de peintures à réaliser, dont certaines seront à découvrir à la Galerie Allen du 28 mai au 26 juillet 2015. Six sérigraphies inédites créées dans un hôtel de New York City seront par ailleurs accrochées.

Un projet spécifique présentant deux artistes Angelenos de deux générations différentes

Aux côtés de la présentation du travail des artistes Linus Bill + Adrien Horni, la Galerie Allen montre une sélection d'œuvres de deux artistes de Los Angeles appartenant à deux générations différentes : Corita Kent (1918-1986) et Cali Thornhill Dewitt (né en 1973).

Ces deux artistes manifestent une nette sensibilité pour le paysage visuel de Los Angeles et ses affiches, mots, publicités et panneaux. Il existe un héritage des artistes de LA qui ont utilisé le texte, débutant avec Kent dans les années soixante jusqu'à Ruscha, Baldessari, Pettibon et le vocabulaire contemporain de Thornhill Dewitt. Bien que Kent et Thornhill aient des objectifs variés, tous deux partagent un même intérêt pour l'immédiateté politique du langage et le potentiel pop de la reproduction mécanique. Les couleurs et la typographie des éditions produites par Thornhill Dewitt sur les presses de la célèbre - et désormais disparue - Colby Printing Company « respirent » l'environnement visuel de Los Angeles. Leurs compositions forment des hymnes contestataires, et les situent entre une accessibilité mainstream et une révolte punk éphémère et insaisissable.

La révolte est également évidente dans les sérigraphies de Corita Kent, mais il s'agit d'une révolution à travers la paix et l'amour du mouvement de la contre-culture des années soixante, époque où ses œuvres historiques ont été produites. Mélant culture pop et foi religieuse (imaginez la rencontre de Jefferson Airplane et du Père Daniel Berrigan) Corita Kent exprime ses opinions pacifistes, son activisme en faveur des droits civils et de l'égalité. Ses activités artistiques révolutionnaires ayant entraîné des tensions avec l'Archevêque de Los Angeles, Corita Kent a quitté « The Immaculate Heart of Mary Order » en 1968, non sans avoir au préalable créé des processions pop et pacifiques à travers les rues de Los Angeles.

Muliple Art Days

PRESS RELEASE

Galerie Allen presents a shared booth with Florence Loewy Galerie - Librairie. The central collaboration revolves around the art-making process of Swiss artists Linus Bill + Adrien Horni. Focusing on the artist's practice where their 'paintings' or 'copies' that begin in the book making process, we find it a very fitting moment to collaborate with Loewy - one of the pre-eminent experts on artist's books.

Together we present this central presentation of all of Bill + Horni's publications to date. Included will be their new edition, Gemälde 2013-2017, a 367 page artist book of soon-to-be made paintings, several of these to be shown at Galerie Allen in May. Alongside this monographic survey we will hang 6 previously unseen silkscreens created in a New York City hotel.

Alongside the work of Bill + Horni, Galerie Allen will present selected works from two different generations of Los Angeles artists – Corita Kent (1918-1986) and Cali Thornhill Dewitt (b.1973). Both artists embrace a clear concern for the Los Angeles visual landscape and its posters, words, advertising and signs. A legacy of LA artists who use text is present, starting with Kent in the sixties through Ruscha, Baldessari, Pettibon and the contemporary language of Thornhill Dewitt. Although Kent and Thornhill Dewitt have varied goals, each share interests in the political immediacy of language and the pop potential of mechanical reproduction. Thornhill Dewitt's editions produced on the famous and now departed Colby Printing Company press exude the colours and typography of the Los Angeles visual periphery. Their un-precious typeset motifs form their anti-establishment anthems and place them in a limbo between mainstream bold accessibility and a hard-to-hold punk ephemeral revolt.

Revolt is also evident in the serigraphs of Corita Kent, but a revolution towards the peace and love of the counter culture movement of the 1960's when these historical works were produced. Her blending of pop culture and religious faith (think Jefferson Airplane meets Father Daniel Berrigan) speaks an anti-war sentiment, civil-rights activism and a demand for equality. Her revolutionary art activities created friction with the Archbishop of Los Angeles and she eventually left the Immaculate Heart of Mary Order in 1968 but not before creating pop processions of peace across an LA vista.

La galerie Allen est un modèle unique réunissant les compétences et expériences variées d'un commissaire indépendant, Joseph Allen Shea, et d'une artiste, Mel O'Callaghan, afin de créer une plate-forme atypique où la structure commerciale est vouée à soutenir et promouvoir éthiquement l'art contemporain.

Avec un accent mis sur le format de ses expositions et leurs variations progressives, la galerie Allen souhaite mettre en place de multiples contextes d'expositions qu'ils soient in situ ou hors les murs. Elle veut interagir comme une structure hors-norme interrogeant les questions d'apparition, de production et de conservation des œuvres. C'est une solution de notre temps pour comprendre les besoins et les difficultés rencontrées par les artistes et les espaces d'expositions.

La galerie Allen souhaite devenir un générateur d'idées installé au sein d'un réseau international afin de promouvoir l'art contemporain et ses idées fondatrices.

Galerie Allen is a unique model capitalising on the varied experiences of an independent curator, Joseph Allen Shea, and artist, Mel O'Callaghan, to create a platform where commercial is the structure of an entire ecology to support the ethical presentation, promotion and production of contemporary art.

With a focus on the exhibition format and its progressive variation, Galerie Allen will deliver exhibitions concerned with context, off-site, curatorial, academic enquiry and reinvention. Understanding the needs and difficulties facing artists and art spaces Galerie Allen proposes a solution for our time.

Galerie Allen is an expanded generator strengthening cultural networks internationally through inclusivity, communication and education for the global distribution of important contemporary art and ideas.
